“ Heaven has gained another angel. She was a fun, high spirited girl that brought smiles to our faces. She will be missed but is in a good place now.

“ Jessica , i still can't believe it's real. I find myself dealing with it, and then it hits me all of a sudden, all over again. that this is real, and I can't ever talk to you again. I've known you for so long , we really grew up together. I'm not the easiest person to get along with, but you and I never had a fall-out, a fight, or nothing. You always kept it real with me , and was loyal, honest, and true, no matter what the situation or circumstances were. I have so much respect and love for you for that. I couldn't have asked god for a better friend, only for a little more time with you. You introduced me to alot of good people, including Buffy, my big sister I never had. I promise I'll look over her for you. I wish I spent more time with u. I could've done alot more im sorry. I wish I could get more time with you. But one thing I know it's not our plan, but Gods plan. Lean not on your own understanding, but trust in God. He needed a beautiful angel , and called your name- it will all make since one day. I'll tell u about everything when I see you again-
I LOVE YOU FOREVER AND ALWAYS

“ For the time our family has known you, it had always been a delight to have you around. Always laughing and smiling even though sometimes you couldn't understand us because of our accents. When you smiled and laughed, it had lightened the room up with warmth and genuine joy. You will forever and always be in our hearts and our memories

“ Sharing "A" memory would be hard because I have so many. 15 YEARS of being BEST friends, RoAd dawgs, RIDE or DIES!! SISTERS (from another mister lol), I'm saying...if you knew Jessica you probably know me :) Her and I were inseparable. That girl was my other half! All I know is that my life will NEVER be the same now that she's gone and I feel like half of my heart has been ripped out of my chest. I still can't believe that this is even real. You touched every persons heart that you ever came in contact with, whether it was for a day, a month, or a lifetime. I just happen to be one of the lucky ones that got a lifetime. For which I am forever grateful!!! I can't wait to see you again, waiting for me up there at them pearly gates... God ain't ready for the dynamic duo...the tag team duo we are huh!! Until then you will be Selina and I's personal angel. I pray you watch over us, especially Lina as she grows.. Shes gonna miss her auntie Jessi too I hope you know how deeply we all love you. You're going to be truly missed babygirl

“ Jessica was and is my baby sister. She was the light of my life. She made me want to be a better person for the both of us. She is and always will be my baby girl. There is so much more I want to say about Jessica but it's so hard to put in words how much she meant to me. If you knew Jessica you knew how beautiful and how special she was. She will always be the the best part of my life. I love you Jessica and I'll give you a thousand and one kisses every night.
