

Karen Lou Phelps

February 27, 1944 - December 30, 2019

Karen Phelps peacefully passed from this world into the next in her sleep Sunday night after a very long illness. She was kind and caring. She will be missed by all her friends, family and neighbors and kitty cat Elsa. She loved going online, taking naps with her kiity cat, having her friends over to chat and talking on the phone. She is the mother to Andrea and Christopher. She is the grandmother to Danielle and Chase. Goodbye dear one...Rest in joy and gladness as you have passed away from sadness.

“ I am Ellis Carter’s daughter, Tammy. I did not know about Kay until maybe a year and a half ago. I had hoped to make it to Florida this summer to meet her and talk about memories of my Dad. She always commented on my Facebook posts and messaged us holiday greetings. I was surprised to know she was a dental assistant...I used to be one too! What a coincidence! Say “Hello” to my Dad, Dear Kay, and tell him I miss him terribly!!

“ Dear Andrea, I am Kay's stepsister. She has been on my mind a lot recently and I've been trying to learn how to contact her. When my mom died I treated Kay badly and I've always been a very kind person. I've wanted to talk with her and explain and apologize to her for my behavior in my intense grief. I will always regret my inability to do this. I am so very sorry to find that she was so ill. If you are willing, please message me. Beverly Profitt Croake

“ I will miss my friend of over 50 years. We were young when we met, and we had young children. I am so glad that we have remained friends, even tho we have lived in different states for most of that time. I will miss my friend very much. My love to Andrea, Chis, and Danielle, and I'm glad that my buddy was able to be at home with her family; Love you Karen...

“ My first memory of Kay was when her mother Pauline Gaylor was married to my uncle Ellis Carter. Both Kay and her sister Marlene kept a little girl busy while the adults talked. I lost contact with her until 3 years ago. I would call and we talked for hours about the Carter family and Ellis whom she loved very much. She loved talking to Marlene Myers, Andy Carter and Tracy Rodriguez whom she thought of as a daughter. We will all miss you Kay you were a very special person.

“ Kay worked for Dr. Goldberg in Dayton Ohio as a Dental Assistant for many years, a job that she loved and was very proud of. When talking to Kay she could tell some stories about growing up with her cousins (especially one) and some stories would just crack you up but they were true. Early this fall she said that her Parkinsons was getting worse and could barely talk on the phone, but when she could she would. She loved being on facebook and keeping up with the families. One of her last post before dying was to my brother and wishing him a Happy Birthday. Kay was a thoughtful person and we will miss her. Rest in peace my dear cousin, you will live in our hearts forever. I hope you get all the Chocolate Cake that you would like to eat !

“ Karen Ross Phelps When I was a baby I spent time in a foster home, I was given up for adoption at the age of four. Kay was my biological mother's first cousin. I found my family through ancestry.com DNA. Marlene Myres, a cousin of mine and a step cousin of Kay's, gave me Kay's full name and how she was related to me around three years ago. I found her in Seminole Florida an hour and a half away from me. i needed a way to contact her, so I tried Facebook. I found her there. I changed our profile picture to my grandfather Alva Gaylor. i sent her a private message explaining who I was. The picture on the message had her Uncle Alva. I also sent this message to a few of her family members and friends, who recognized Alva. They immediately contacted her to let her know someone was trying to reach her with this picture of her Uncle. She called me Immediately. She called me everyday for at least a month saying she just wanted to know me and my family. As she got to know me, I got to know her. Let me just tell you, she was AWESOME! She was beautiful, smart kind loving generous and funny. She could make me laugh. I understood her and she understood me. My heart is broken, I will miss her, my cousin, my friend. Thank you for your love, I will carry it with me always.
