

Madelyne Rose Knight

August 29, 1929 - December 27, 2015

Madelyne Rose Knight of Largo FL passed away Sunday December 27, 2015 at the age of 86. Madelyne was born in Toledo, Ohio on August 29, 1929. She was pre-deceased by her parents Beulah Knight and Harold Knight. She is survived by her sister June Knight Berry of Largo and two nieces Victoria Lynn Muenzer Beer and Teressa Muenzer Brock and two nephews Michael Muenzer and Christopher Muenzer and five great nieces and nephews. Madelyne went to the University of Toledo and worked at Dana/Spicer Manufacturing for 17 years and was a Union Steward for UAW.

She loved to fish from her pontoon boat on Indian Lake OH, catching bluegills and crappies with a cane pole or ZEBCO 202 and traveling to Irish Hills of Michigan for trout.

She was a great bowler with 186 average and was accomplished on the organ, owned a player piano and a Wurlitzer Juke Box. Her favorite pastime was keeping her many convertibles waxed and shiny.

Madelyne never married and was instead a devoted daughter to her parents always caring for their needs.

A celebration of life will be held Wednesday Jan 6, 2015 at Oak Manor Health Care Clubhouse Indian Rocks Rd Largo FL at 11:00 am.

“ Hello - This is Susan Hooper (Jennings, maiden name) daughter of Peggy Jennings. Is this the Lyne Knight that she used to live with in Sylvania, Ohio for many years? My mother, Peggy passed away in 2004 at 76 and I have been looking for her friend, Lyne for years. She was like an aunt to our family. Would someone kindly answer me or call me at home 419-843-3477. Thank you so much. I am so sorry for your loss.

“ I am sure it is Lyne now by the twinkle in her eyes and her smile - it's good to know she lived to be 86. I've been wondering about her for some time. So glad I found this. Susan Hooper
