“ Mario, my husband, my best friend . We officially started dating Memorial Day weekend 14 years ago and married less than 2 years after that .You picked Valentine's Day for several reasons ,first because it was romantic (and you were a big romantic) second because there would be no sports on tv that you would miss ! Third because you got two celebrations in one on our anniversary. You were always thinking ahead of the game

We became inseparable and anywhere we would go you would always know somebody and then we became "us" , a team

You introduced me to the most wonderful in laws in the world ,and I became a stepmom to your 2 kids Kristina and Jeffrey, now I had an amazing family package .You were so proud of your kids and in turn so was I. Then came the grandkids Bradley (junior)! and Gabriella . You thought you weren't ready to be a grandpa but became an amazing one overnight .Thats how you were, always up for a challenge. You would always be thinking of the next joke to play or make somebody laugh even a complete stranger.

I always said that if you could make me laugh just once a day we would always be ok ,you did that and so much more

You made me feel safe and loved , you were taken from me and all of us that loved you far too soon , who is going to make me laugh ? That was supposed to be youforever!!!

You used to say that when someone dies they are too soon forgotten, well you wrong on that because you will NEVER be forgotten . When you left me ,you took a piece of me with you which I hope you will always keep , because I am no longer whole without you and nothing will fill that .I will ALWAYS love you to the moon and backyour loving wife Zoe xxxxxxxxxx

“ To our son-in-law Mario, 14 years ago you came in to our lives, when you fell in love with our daughter Zoe , and you became soul mates together..... We had no worries about Zoe being so far away from home , because , we knew that you would always love, care and look after her.....we will always have our treasured memories of the wonderfull holidays we shared with you both

#. Rob and Lin, One of our favorites , being the long weekend in Miami, drinking and laughing the whole time.....

#. Sue and Adrian, the preparation to your wedding, and playing crazy golf.... Going out in the boat fishing and getting stuck on a sand bank

There are so many wonderfull memories just too many to mention.
You were truly loved, and will be sadly missed ,Mario , we love you...

“ Dear, sweet Zoe,
I am so sad Mario died. I didn't know him, but I am blessed to know you. When my daughter, Emily, died in a car crash on Christmas Eve, 2014, you showed me so much love and compassion. I remember you hugging me and crying with me. You made such a difference in my shattered life with your beautiful smile and genuine concern.
Now, I will be there for you. All you need to do is ask.
Zoe, you're so dear to me.
I will keep you in my prayers.
With love,
Marty Matthews

“ Mario was a great neighbor and a better friend. He would give you the shirt off his back without thinking twice. As long as it wasn't a Yankees jersey. We will always miss his "Yo!" to welcome us home and the lollipops he always had handy for Collette. The Angels he is with are truly lucky.
Love James, Celleste, and Collette

“ Mario had a huge heart. If someone needed something, he was there for them. He loved life, his wife, his family, his grandchildren. Those who knew Mario .. were blessed. He will surely be missed. I would be shopping for something for Zoe and would call him on his cell ... we would always get a laugh as I passed ideas past him. He was a kind man. He was a good man. Mario is one bad ass angel in heaven today. Prayers for his family, especially Zoe. I will miss him. Always ,, Kathy and Mitch
