“ To my kind and dear friend Stephen and family,
Although we lost touch with each other and, many years have passed since we last spoke, I wanted all to know that you were truly the biggest hearted person that I have ever known. When we were young, you treated me like a little brother. When we became older, you treated me with more respect than I deserved. You were kind and always generous. We shared many wonderful days together and I always cherished our friendship.
If the size of someone's heart is the measure of greatness, you are the greatest of all of us.
Rest in peace and I can't wait to meet you in heaven!
With love,
Johnny Paolicelli

“ What I choose to remember most about my brother, Stephen, was his devotion to our Mother. There wasn't anything she could ask for that he would refuse. Even if he put up a fight, he would ultimately relent and get it for her. They are together now as they were before and I know he is still giving her whatever she wants. My regards to those who went before. You are missed.
